As I go to bed, waiting the rising sun of a new day begun on this day which will soon tell the history, I repeat the words of "No Need to Fear" and say a prayer for the people of the United States Virgin Islands as we confront difficult and challenging days.

No need to fear when times of trouble come. Oppression, scorn, beats at your door. No need to fear though evil seem so strong, their pride and power is not for long. Be still my soul and trust in God and place your life into His hand ..for He will never fail you and in the morning you will see His face. No need to fear the envy and the scorn of those who boast in what they own....No need to fear for whats remains when life's brief day is done their glories are a setting sun. But as for me of this I'm sure God will redeem my soul from death and he will never fail me and in the morning I'll see His face. No need to fear don't fear.

Operation Yellow Cedar is in full effect the Hour of liberation is at hand.
And in the morning you'll see His face. No need to fear, Don't fear. For the God of our fathers and mothers who has never deserted us reigns. Glory be to His name!

It is for us to see difficult days through to a successful conclusion
